

Get a Breast Pump at No Cost

As a new or expectant mom, you want the best for your precious little one. Breastfeeding offers proven benefits for your baby and you, but equipment can be expensive.

Did you know BlueChoice® HealthPlan of South Carolina can help with this?

Members who are eligible to receive a breast pump will not have any cost sharing when the breast pump is ordered through a contracting provider.

To get this valuable benefit, choose one of these breast pumps:

- Medela Pump In Style® with MaxFlow
- Ameda® Mya Joy Double Electric Pump
- Ameda One-Hand Manual Pump

How To Order

Order your pump from an in-network provider:

- Better Living Now

Website: <https://www.BetterLivingNow.com/NewBeginnings>

Phone: 844-533-5858

Hours: Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. – 10 p.m. ET, Saturday from 9 a.m. – 10 p.m. ET

- Edgepark®

Website: www.EdgePark.com

Phone: 855-504-2099

Hours: Monday – Friday from 8 a.m. – 9 p.m. ET

- Edwards Health Care Services

Website: www.MyEHCS.com

Phone: 888-344-3434

Hours: Monday – Friday from 8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m. ET

You'll need to upload a breast pump prescription from your doctor when you place your order. If you don't have a prescription, the provider can help with this.

Be sure to choose one of the covered breast pumps. If you choose a different pump or go through a different provider, the pump may be subject to deductibles, copays or coinsurance.
